Coronavirus

In line with FIEC guidelines, we will be partaking of pre-cut individual pieces of bread during communion for the foreseeable future. Our weekly Coffee Mornings have also been cancelled – please pass on this message to others.

Our services go out live on the internet: the camera points towards the lectern; faces are not seen when looking forward. Please speak to the service coordinator if you require a seat not included on the screen. To watch live or recorded services visit our website. Offerings are not routinely taken up during our services; boxes are available for free-will offerings which are gratefully received.

Prayer Focus

Keele University Events Week Update

Josh Towers has asked to share the following which is very encouraging:

We, as a CU, would like to thank you for your prayers and the finances you have given for our Events Week. It was a really great week and God has blessed us and has been moving on our Campus.

- Throughout the week we had around 193 people turn up and hear the gospel.
- What was even greater news is that we had two people make professions of faith.
- We had many engaging conversations and have had many responses to join our follow up events, which are currently going on. These include a discussion group talking about the issues of Freedom, Suffering, Happiness, Hope and Acceptance.

So, we would appreciate your continued prayers for our follow up course and for those two people who came to Christ - that they would continue with their walk and that we as a CU can support them. Thank you.

“Seek good, not evil, that you may live. Then the Lord God Almighty will be with you, just as you say he is. Hate evil, love good; maintain justice in the courts. Perhaps the Lord God Almighty will have mercy on the remnant of Joseph.” Amos 5 v 14-15 (NIV)
